Summer Youth Employment Program

Youth Worker Request Form

Please complete this form and return to Rochester Works! All fields require information, and a formal job description should also be submitted with the request form. Rochester Works! is responsible for pre-screening and placing youth workers in locations of best fit. Please remember that we cannot guarantee to fill each opening and that summer placement is dependent on the number of requests received and best fit for both the youth intern and worksite.

If YES, please explain:

Costs related to additional screening methods WILL NOT be covered by Rochester Works! or expected of youth interns

A formal job description should be submitted for each position your business is interested in filling. It should include detailed information about the position the intern will occupy, job duties and any traits/skills a youth should possess that will contribute to their success in the position.

Additional Information:

Orientation dates/sessions will be held throughout June to allow youth to meet with worksite representatives, discuss schedules and expectations of the worksite, and receive payroll orientation.

Please indicate if your onboarding process will necessitate additional time due to additional requirements (e.g. medical paperwork, background clearance).*

Orientation dates for 2023 are pending. Once finalized you will be notified.

Both Company Representative and/or Supervisor are welcomed to attend. The youth interns will report to their respective worksites by July 10, 2023.

Completed Requests Should Be E-mailed, Faxed, or Mailed to:
